

Jan 18, 2014

AAU Al Ain Campus Commemorates Prophet's Birthday

The AAU Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain Campus organized a talk to mark the Prophet's (PBUH) birthday. The talk was presented by Dr. Eisa Rabeeh, Assistant professor at the college of education, with faculty members, staff, and students in attendance.

Dr. Eisah discussed the life of Prophet Mohammed (PBUH) and birth, which represents the birth of a nation and the birth of a religion of tolerance. He added that the Prophet's birth is a symbol of justice, equality and peace. At the end of the talk, Dr. Eisa called on the audience to follow the guidance, morals and teachings of the Holy Prophet and learn from his life and manners.

Press Release Link