

Nov 13, 2014

Al Ain University Organizes 'Poetry Meeting' Event

The purpose of the "Poetic Meeting" is to address cultural event where the feeling of poetry endorses the horizons of life. The event has been organized by the Deanship of Students Affairs at Al Ain University of Science and Technology, in cooperation with the AAU Faculty of Education. It was led by Dr Ahmed Samawi, Dr. Shams Islam Halou and Mrs. Manal Salah Jibril, who are faculty members in the College of Education. The attendees were members of the academic and administrative bodies and a routine of university scholars.

The meeting was brought out of varied poetry by the poets, who filled the event with beauty and poetic vision. They enriched the public and brought great interaction due to reading poetry greatly. The aim of such an organization is to preserve the nation's heritage of the Arabic poetry literate.

At the conclusion of the event, the attendees expressed their happiness with the poets, where the audience's interaction with the poets gave significant impact to make it efficient.

Press Release Link