

Apr 27, 2015

A lecture entitled "Working as a Checker after Graduation" at Al Ain University

The Deanship of Students Affairs at Al Ain University of Science and Technology, based in Abu Dhabi, in cooperation with the Interaction with the Community Committee in the College of Business Administration and under the supervision of Dr. Riham Mqatash, coordinated a lecture entitled "Work as a Checker after Graduation", where university hosted an international auditing company KPMG.

Initially, the head of the Department of Accounting and Finance, Dr. Amer Kasim, welcomed the distinguished guests, Mr. Saif Al Shower, Director of External Audit, Mr. Harry Krishnan, Head Consultant of Internal Audit. They gave a detailed explanation of the nature of the work of an auditor, the audit procedures, the audit profession-related laws, and how to audit companies to work as a checker after graduation. They also enticed the AAU students for field training at their company and to provide job opportunities for distinguished graduates.

The lecture received great interaction from the students.

At the end of the lecture, presented by Dr. Riham Mqatash thanked the lecturers, professors and students in the completion of this event.

Press Release Link