A Program on "Spending Right" in Al Ain University

A program titled 'Spending Right' was organized by the Deanship of Students Affairs at the Al Ain University of Science and Technology, based in Abu Dhabi, in cooperation with the Foundation for Youth Development. It was presented by Fatima Al Masa'abi, who gave a short talk on personal financial management, whatever the size of the main ways of provident and how to avoid the risk of future debt.

The workshop focused on young people between the ages of 15-25 years, and the challenges they face with respect to the management of personal financial affairs, by providing them with tools to enhance their capacities to manage and to plan their financial affairs in order to avoid excessive debt.

Fatima said that training in savings and how to invest in money are difficult and need great efforts to bear fruit, and to change the behaviour of young people as well as the culture of their spending. It is time consuming and redoubles efforts, but she pointed to the need for concerted efforts to resolve the issue of investment and money management profile.
