

Apr 29, 2015

A third book fair in Al Ain University

Established by the Deanship of Students Affairs at Al Ain University of Science and Technology, Abu Dhabi-based, an Arab book fair, in cooperation with the Abu Dhabi Authority for Culture and Tourism, was inaugurated in the university's library by Prof Abdel Hafeez Belarbi, AAU Vice President. More than 350 titles of books on various topics of cultural, scientific and literary novels plus publications were displayed.

The Vice President showed his gratitude and appreciation to the participants in the exhibition on the good efforts, the constructive cooperation and communication with educational institutions. He also thanked them with gratitude for providing many different resources of books and references and for their continued joint cooperation in several areas. He finalized the visit with his thanks to the Students Affairs Deanship for contacting different cultural institutions.

Press Release Link