AAU Students visits the “Etihad Museum”

The Deanship of Student Affairs in Al Ain University of Science and Technology –Abu Dhabi Campus- organized a trip to the “Etihad Museum” which has been launched on the Second of December 2016, within the celebration of the 45th UAE National Day.

The students toured the museum accompanied by the museum’s employees, where they provide them with a lot of information about the museum and each department of it. The tour started with welcoming the students in the reception, then they visited the theatre, the garden, the “Founders” department and they had a look in the Emirates Interactive map. They also visited the induction film hall, presentation department, the constitution department and the library.

The students wrapped up their trip by visiting the educational department which contains two halls for training and workshops.

At the end of the visit, the students expressed their happiness on this visit which gave them the chance to know more about UAE's history.
