MA and PHD Scholarships at Al Ain University

In collaboration with AMIDEAST Institute and the USA Embassy, the Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University of Science and Technology, Abu Dhabi Campus, organized an orientation session about “Scholarships for Master and Doctoral Degrees” for UAE National students only.

The presenter Mr. Jeries Khayyat, Education and Marketing Program Officer, explained how to enroll in MA and PHD programs in the United States of America, which covers full tuition fees, book fees, study materials, housing and travel costs to and from the UAE, in addition to a monthly salary for students, health insurance, and insurance against accidents. He also explained the conditions that must be provided for applicants and the deadline for submission of applications for these grants. National students can apply for these scholarships in all disciplines, except the clinical majors such as medicine and dentistry.
