

Mar 21, 2018

Deanship of Student Affairs celebrates Mother's Day

On the occasion of the Mother's Day which is celebrated by the 21th of March yearly, the Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University of Science and Technology at Al Ain and Abu Dhabi Campus celebrates this day in a special way.

The celebration at Al Ain Campus, included distribution of roses and symbolic gifts, in addition to the paintings hung on the wall, and written words expressing the mother.

At Abu Dhabi campus, the Deanship of Student Affairs participated with Al Manhal International Private School in celebrating Mother's Day, where Ms. Kawthar Kayed from Al Ain University spoke about the mother and her active role in the family. The Deputy Director of the school thanked the Al Ain University for Science and Technology for their active participation.

For her part, Dr. Ibtehal Aburezeq, Dean of Student Affairs, stressed on the University's keenness to celebrate Mother's Day each year and expressed her appreciation for the role of mothers and their efforts between work and with family, wishing them all health and wellness.

Press Release Link