

Nov 24, 2019

A delegation from Friends University visit AAU

Al Ain University, Abu Dhabi campus, received a delegation from Friends University in the United States of America, which acted as a representation of the global MBA program students, headed by the Director of the Program, Dr. Valentina Chappel. The Vice President of the University, Dr. Amer Qasem, welcomed the guest delegation, indicating the importance of such visits, which open the horizons of cooperation between universities and at all levels.

The visit included a brief presentation by Dr. Ahmad Ghandour- Director of the MBA Program in Abu Dhabi, in which he explained the components of the program and its concentrations, preparing students pedagogy and ways to open areas of cooperation between the two programs, followed by, a tour among the university's facilities with the deputy dean of the College of Business, Dr. Abdullah Al Shawabke.

For her part, the director of the program expressed her sincere gratitude for this visit, which she considered as a clear path for cooperation not only at the level of the program but also at the university level as a whole.

Press Release Link