

Feb 15, 2021

A Virtual seminar on How to be a successful presenter

On the occasion of the World Radio Day and under the slogan “Be the Voice of the Future”, the College of Communication and Media in cooperation with the Deanship of Student Affairs, organized a seminar on Successful Skills of the presenter, delivered by Presenter Khadija

Hassan Ghuloom, from Al Oula FM, Hamdan bin Mohammed Heritage Center. The seminar was attended by Prof. Ibtehal Aburezeq- Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. Rahima Eissani- Dean of the College of Communication and Media, and the College of Media Students.

The seminar discussed how to; graduate media professionals, enhance their self-confidence, speak skillfully in front of the audience, in addition to, communication and listening skills.

This seminar aims to encourage media talents in developing their skills, highlight their abilities, and giving them the opportunity to appear and influence themselves in the society.

Press Release Link