

Sep 27, 2022

Al Ain University hosts the Director General of the National Search and Rescue Center to talk about "Leadership and Decision Making"

The Deanship of Student Affairs (Abu Dhabi Campus), in cooperation with the National Search and Rescue Center, organized a session entitled "Leadership and Decision Making" presented by HE Dr. Stephen Arthur Toumajan - Director of the Center. He talked about the importance of leadership, how to make appropriate decisions in daily life, and what principles a person should consider for the process of self-development and decision-making.

The session was attended by Prof. Amer Qasem, AAU Vice President (Abu Dhabi Campus), and Dr. Hani Al-Jarrah, Deputy Dean of Student Affairs, in addition to the deputy deans of the colleges and a number the academic staff members. The session also witnessed a positive turnout and interaction among students from various colleges.

Press Release Link