Dec 08, 2023

Honoring People of Determination for their participation in the 52nd National Day

Al Ain University honored its participating students with disabilities in its celebration of the 52nd UAE National Day at its Abu Dhabi campus. These students demonstrated creativity and excellence in organizing this national event. Their participation involved teaching members of the academic and administrative bodies, as well as visitors, sign language to convey congratulations to the United Arab Emirates as an expression of gratitude for this cherished occasion that touches the hearts of all.

Prof. Amer Qasem, Vice President of the University (Abu Dhabi campus), honored the students in the presence of Dr. Nuha Hamada, Deputy Dean of Student Affairs, Dr. Mohamed Naseer, Deputy Dean of the College of Communication and Media, and the supervising professors from the College of Communication and Media.

Press Release Link