

Deanship of Student Affairs

Career Development Office > Objectives

Objectives

- Develop students' professional and personal skills to enhance their readiness for the job market.
- Provide career and vocational guidance that helps students make informed career decisions.
- Build partnerships with employers to provide training and employment opportunities for students.
- Organize events that support professional development and enhance the overall university experience.

View Page